

The Lightkeeper* Book Club Questions

1. What is the significance of a nameless Keeper? What is the significance of Ronan naming his beloved, and the “true” name she finds on the stone?
2. Why is the Lightkeeper difficult to see? Who in our lives “sees” us? Who are the nameless people in our lives we often fail to see?
3. Why does Wisdom tell the Lightkeeper to “remember what you have” when she is feeling hopeless? How has practicing gratitude worked in your life?
4. Do we only accept good from God and not trouble? Is our happiness a reflection of our material circumstances?
5. What does it mean that the suffering the Lightkeeper encountered was “for her”?
6. The Lightkeeper works “outside the home” and understands that time away is time she misses with her beloved, who also “needs” her. Have you had a similar experience? How do you deal with this tension in your life?
7. What does Wisdom mean that we cannot offer service to people without knowing them?
8. How does the Lightkeeper deal with the uncertainty of her life? Does she have more control or less after her decision is made?
9. When Ronan discovers the choice Aine has made he isn’t sure if he would’ve made the same one. What do you think of the choice Aine makes?
10. What are the lighthouses in your life? For whom do you keep Lights?
